

Accidents on Private Land

If an accident takes place on private property then this need not preclude you from presenting a claim. The occupiers owe you a duty of care. Most home insurance policies include cover against such claims, so insurance may well be in place to meet this type of claim.