

Who arranges the medical reports?

Few insurers will entertain an injury claim without a medical report. We would get your medical records reviewed by an appropriate, local expert, who would examine you if needed and prepare a report for our use.