

The other driver wasn't insured! Can I still claim?

If the person who caused your road traffic injury turns out not to have been insured then the Motor Insurers' Bureau (MIB) can be made to pay your compensation instead, under their Uninsured Drivers Scheme. It's a complex system but we'll guide you through the maze.