

Jim Dykes

Solicitor

Qualifications:

BA (Hons)

Education:

1981 - 1985 - Bristol Polytechnic - Law Degree and Law Society Finals

Experience:

1986 - 2003

Jim began his carrier in Law working in the property and conveyancing department at Stephens & Scown in Exeter. He soon developed an interest in Personal Injury, and moved to the Plymouth based Law Firm, Goldberg's, where he specialised in Personal Injury work. After 3 years, Jim moved back to Exeter his 'home' town, and re-joined Stephens & Scown : progressing to Partner within the Personal Injury department.

2003 - Present

Jim joined Veitch Penny in August 2003, bringing with him a wealth of experience that has made him an invaluable member of the department and a team leader. Jim's expertise includes Road Traffic Accidents, Accidents at Work, Trippers & Slippers and Medical Negligence.

Jim is a Member of APIL, Exeter Medico Legal Society and the Local Law Society.

Outside of work, Jim has an interest in Rugby and Football.