

Frances Macdonald

Claims Handler - F.Inst.L.Ex

Qualifications:

Degree in Biological of Sciences (genetics) (2:1)

Membership of ILEX

Education:

University of Birmingham

Experience:

1997 - 1999 - Devon & Cornwall Police

Working within the court works section, Frances dealt with summonses, witness liaison, criminal law and road traffic accidents.

1999 - 2000 - Reynolds Dawson Solicitors, London

General office work.

2000 - 2002 - OH Parsons

Handling claims for miners, in-particular Hand Arm Vibration Syndrome and Respiratory Disease.

September 2002 - Present Day - Veitch Penny

Frances works within the Personal Injury department as a Legal Executive. She manages her own caseload of Road Traffic and other accidents and deals with the general public on a day-to-day basis.

She is a Fellow of ILEX and the Exeter Medico Legal Society.

Frances' hobbies are singing, swimming and walking and she belongs to the Northcott Theatre Community Company.